What we got up to:

We started the day with a full English in in the Wayfarer Bistro, needless to say it was excellent.

Leaving Ludham and went up to Barton Broad taking the left at the fork in the river towards Dilham. The heat must have been taking it's toll because we all felt more lethargic than usual, so we put Twilight's nose in to a small inle and stopped for a couple of hours to read. Glen tried his luck again at fishing, but the pike continued to be elusive

Nothing at Dilham of interest so we turned around and went back. Decided not to turn left to Stalham went all the way back to Wroxham and moored past bridge outside the pub again.

Kahra met some friends that gave her flower. Glen and Kahra both complained that the Penne was too hot!! and decided to eat at the pub :-).
